Gay Mitchell MEP, in association with the Brussels office of CBM, cordially invites you to a photo exhibition marking the entry into force of the UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, at the Atrium, 2nd floor, PHS building, European Parliament at 6pm on Tuesday, December 2nd 2008.

The photo exhibition features images of persons with disabilities from developing countries who have been given access to healthcare, education, employment, humanitarian aid and community inclusion. The results are inspiring.

These people are a tiny minority. Of the estimated 650 million people worldwide, 80 percent live in the developing world and only 4 per cent have access to development cooperation. What can the European Union do about this?

Speakers at the reception will address this question.

- Gay Mitchell MEP
- John Bowis MEP
- Carlotta Besozzi,
Director of the European Disability Forum
- Tanja Kern, Regional Director CBM
